

Touristed

Tourism, Regional Identities and Ideas of Nation

21–22 June 2022

European Studies Centre, St. Antony's College, University of Oxford

Tuesday, 21 June

14.00–14.15 – Introduction

Talitha Ilacqua, University of Oxford
Why Tourism?

14.15–15.30 – Tourism Between Nation and Empire

Chair: TBC

Eric Zuelow, University of New England in Maine (online)
Modern Tourism and the Nation: A Symbiotic Relationship

Eric Jennings, University of Toronto (online)
The Contours of Colonial Tourism

15.30–16.00 – Coffee Break

16.00–17.45 – Tourism and the Commercialisation of the Region

Chair: TBC

Philip Whalen, Coastal Carolina University (online)
The Cultural Politics of Tourism and Development in Early Twentieth-Century Burgundy

Eric Storm, Universiteit Leiden
The Culture of Regionalism, Neo-Vernacular Architecture and Tourism

Adam Rosenbaum, Colorado Mesa University (online)
One Cannot Live on Good Air Alone: The Cosmopolitan Cure of Bad Reichenhall

19.00 – Dinner at St. Antony's College

Wednesday, 22 June

9.30–11.00 – Piety and Tourism

Chair: TBC

Katherine Haldane Grenier, The Citadel
'How sad a welcome!': Tourism and Charity on Nineteenth-Century Iona

Robert Priest, Royal Holloway, University of London

The Moral Economy of Religious Tourism: Passion Players and Package Tourists at Oberammergau, c. 1870–1910

11.00–11.30 – Coffee Break

11.30–13.00 – Crafting Culture for Tourists?

Chair: TBC

Peter George, University of Oxford

'en été Jèrri ne nos appartchient pas': Tourism, Dialect and the Press in Twentieth-Century France and Jersey

Antoni Vives Riera, Universitat de Barcelona (online)

The Spectacle of the 'Other' in the Tourist Contact Zone: The Making of the Regional Dance Show in Mallorca, 1910–34

13.00–14.00 – Lunch Break

14.00–15.45 – Tourism and the Transformation of Space and Time

Chair: Paul Betts, University of Oxford

Jana Hunter, University of Oxford

Tourism and Time: Redefining the Rhythms of Bohemian Life, c.1880–1920

Caroline Ford, University of California, Los Angeles

The Environmental Transformation of 'Empty Space': From Desert to Forest in the Landes of Southwestern France

Andrew WW Smith, University of Chichester

Internal Colonialism? Building a French Florida and the 'Touristification' of the Midi

15.45–16.00 – Conclusions