

OXPO WORKSHOP

21 JUNE 2023

MULTILATERALISM AND SECURITY

Nuffield College, Oxford
Conference Room
& online

REGISTRATION & CONTACT:
sarah.tanke@politics.ox.ac.uk

9:30* Welcome

10:00 THE DIMENSION OF THE STATE

---

Germany and France - two visions of multilateralism

Franca Loewener (Catholic University of Paris)

The Chinese approach to multilateralism: the case of the Global Security Initiative (GSI)

Quentin Couvreur (Sciences Po Paris)

10:50 GLOBAL HEALTH SECURITY

---

A blessing or a curse? The role of money in shaping international health governance (1920–2020)

Florian Brunner (University of Oxford)

Francesco Gatti (Scuola Normale Superiore)

Tierney Hall (University of Oxford)

Multilateralism in global and continental African health security

Sarah Mengesha (Deutsche Gesellschaft für Internationale Zusammenarbeit (GIZ) GmbH)

Child mortality in Latin America and the role of international organizations

Federico Bietti (University of Tours)

12:00 Lunch break

13:00 SECURITY AND CONFLICT

---

Japan's evolving relations with NATO

Wrenn Yennie Lindgren (Norwegian Institute of International Affairs (NUPI) / Swedish Institute of International Affairs (UI))

Advancing the frozen status quo. The Role of Multilateralism and Recognition in the Moldovan-Pridnestrovian Conflict

Justin Cook (Catholic University of Paris)

13:50 CONCEPTS AND COMMUNICATION

---

India's contribution to the concept of human security vis-à-vis small states in the Indo-Pacific

Solène Soosaithasan (Sciences Po Paris / CERAPS University of Lille)

Japan and (human) security at the United Nations

Sarah Tanke (University of Oxford / Sciences Po Paris)

Branding and Communications in the UN's Peace and Security Environments

Stefan Tschauko (The Fletcher School, Tufts University)

15:00 Tea & concluding discussion